The meeting and annual dinner feature educational and inspiring plenary and workshop sessions on health policy, single payer, responding to "consumer-directed" health care, organizing at the state and national level, developments in Canada, and more. Speakers to include Dr. Steffie Woolhandler, Dr. John Geyman, Dr. Quentin Young, and other PNHP and national experts. If you've never been to a PNHP Annual Meeting before, please join us for our most important gathering of the year.

The next Leadership Training Institute has been rescheduled for:

The Inn at Penn, Philadelphia, December 9-10, 2005

3600 Sansom Street

Friday, December 9, 1-6 p.m. (followed by informal dinner)

Saturday, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., dinner at 7 p.m.

This is an intensive two-day crash course in health policy, politics, financing, and activism designed for physicians who want to become active in the movement for health care reform. Limited to 60 members. Participants come a half-day early (program starts at 1 p.m. on Friday) to take specially-designed workshops led by PNHP National Board Member and other policy experts. They also participate in "leadership track" workshops during the annual meeting. Attendance both days is required. Over 300 physicians have already taken this course and it has received rave reviews.

Note: If you are also attending the American Public Health Association meeting, you may make hotel reservations through their web site at www.apha.org. The Inn at Penn is 1.9 miles from the Convention Center - a 5 minute cab ride.
